From the Pastor's Desk

Happy New Year!

Grace and peace in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I welcome in 2008 as the year of New Beginnings. God has proven himself faithful to the church in 2007 and we are excited to see what is going to happen in 2008. We ordained 7 of our leaders to the office of Evangelist on the 1st Sunday of the New Year. I am so Godly proud of them for their commitment to ministry. Also we have recently added an additional

night of bible study on Thursday just for our teens. The Lord has doubled the number of youth in the church and we are in anticipation at what God will unfold during the year for them. My vision and assignment this year is to focus on winning souls, teaching how to live a spirit led life and raising up strong Christians for Christ. As your Pastor I need you and your prayers to continue the work God has put before me.

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!”
2 Corinthians 5:17

Men Speak Up

By Bishop Lewis James

This ministry is designed to help men in their day-to-day challenges as well as their walk with God. The emphasis focuses on the importance of integrity while building character and awareness on their spiritual journey as a Christian.

Understanding why it is so necessary for males to bond in order to develop and mature into men, also showing the younger males that the older men are needed to pour wisdom in their lives.

Teaching our young males to respect their elders as well as themselves. Uniting the young and old by sharing experiences and concerns. Exposing the pit falls of relationships and what the word of God says about relationships between men and women. We discuss why courtship is necessary before marriage and why dating the worlds way is against God.

My goal is to bring the young and old men together to win souls for Christ and join forces in order to create an effective army to fight the forces of darkness.

My Re-Birth

By Kandy Byrd

To begin, I was a person in denial with many "strongholds". I claimed to know God and love Him. I mean how could I not; I grew up in church and my mom is a Pastor (Pastor Harris).

Through many years of struggles and disappointments, fortunately with my mom's help and prayers I gave my life to God.

"I could take no more!!!"

Being re-born is such a wonderful feeling. (I ask myself, Why did I take so long?) I realize now that knowing God is knowing His Word, along with wanting to live right for him. I am proud to say that being one of God's children is awesome. Growing spiritually has filled a void in my heart, and changed me. I am zealous for God and to learn and understand His will for me so that I may do the work I was destined to do. "Praise God!"

In My Opinion

By Koel Alexander

As if being a Christian isn't hard enough in today's world. Christians face some of the biggest challenges in their walk with the Lord. People everyday want to test your Christianity because if they can find fault in you they day why should they convert. Most of all the youth face the biggest test everyday. The real test comes when you enter college and leave the safety nest of your parents and enter the real world. As a Christian in college you are suppose to be a light to every person you come in contact with.

It doesn't get any easier because the peer pressure increases. The devil starts to try to lean your mind towards just experimenting with new things. He really wants you to comprise your faith and turn against God. You should immediately let people know about your faith and try to find like-minded people so that you won't have to deal with the people of the world pressuring you to go against your faith.

“ Submit yourselves, then , to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.”
